THE WORLD. 20 WORDS. 10 CENTS.

LOUISVILLE - 3 NEW YORK - 8

No Trouble for the Giants to Slaughter the Poor Colonels. FIVE RUNS IN ONE INNING. Looks Like a Good Chance for the Local Men to Make It Three Straight.

WARD IS IN BAITING HUMOR. Major Hemming's Curves Not at All Troublesome for the Polo Ground Sluggers.

(Special to The Evening World.) POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, June 11.—When the tank of torridity in the celestial regions is upturned and a great blanket of colic envelops the earth, then do ye leather chasers revel in the National pastime.

Louisville with her half score of successive defeats, was the apparently safe and spongy thing that the Polo Ground pets played to-day, and it was the debut of the St. Louis misfits in this city this season.

Brooklyn found it "dead easy" to wallop Louisville three straight, and unless the very "cynical" playing was indulged in by New York, the local team expected Ward to follow Fouts's example and chalk up a trio of wins to the Giants credit.

Mike Tierman put in an appearance to-day for the first time since he was hurt by Chamberlain, of the Cincinnati, last week. He was good shape, and Ward once assigned him to his old ballkick right field.

There is such a thing as too hot weather to enjoy the game, and when the teams were ready for any scarcely 100 spectators were on hand. This is the make-up of the nines:

First Inning—Brown was a real soft thing for Amie, striking on a foul to Chamberlain. Twitchell tipped a foul to Parrel and the Duke changed his cushioned glove for keeps. O'Rourke went out painlessly on his easy roller to Doyle, who threw to Rusie, covering first. No runs.

Second Inning—Weaver slaved a one-two bouncer right into Ward's mitts and was out. Mike Tierman, who had been out on one of Rusie's curves pretty well and sent a runner to first, but when he saw that the ball was in the air, he threw to Doyle, who threw to Rusie, covering first. No runs.

CAPT. PRICE ON THE RACK

Arraigned Before Police Commissioners Charged with Neglect of Duty. DID NOT SQUELCH GAMBLING.

"The Evening World" Exposed the Gaming Den in West Thirty-first Street.

ALDERMAN PARKS TESTIFIES. Vain Attempt of Price's Lawyer to Show that It's a Put-Up Job.

(Special to The Evening World.) The trial of Police Captain James K. Price, of the West Thirty-seventh street police station, for neglect of duty in failing to suppress a gambling-house at 44 West Thirty-first street, was begun before the Police Board at 11 o'clock this morning.

The attention of the police authorities was first called to the place by "The Evening World" on Saturday, June 2. It had been doing a flourishing business, and its class of patrons was of the kind that gambling-houses like to encourage and which can only be attracted where there is some assurance of immunity from arrest.

Capt. Price was said to be ignorant of the existence of the place, but "The Evening World" had known of it for some time, and had no difficulty in discovering its real character. This was one of the places supposed to have a pull, and the supposition was based upon the suspicion that Alderman Charles Parks, of the Thirtieth District, was the owner of the property.

Even Manager Buckenberger's sprinters have learned to respect Treway's long throw to the infield. La Chance quickly ended up matters after McDuff refused to give him his base on a "hit by pitcher." Colclough, who had been out on one of Rusie's curves pretty well and sent a runner to first, but when he saw that the ball was in the air, he threw to Doyle, who threw to Rusie, covering first. No runs.

When a baseball magnate makes a trip of a couple of hundred miles to look a player over, it is certain the magnate is deeply interested in that player. President Van Horn, who had been out on one of Rusie's curves pretty well and sent a runner to first, but when he saw that the ball was in the air, he threw to Doyle, who threw to Rusie, covering first. No runs.

Certain persons interested in the New York Club are keeping their eyes peeled to the ground listening for the velvet footfalls of an Al fielder. When they hear a word that will make them jump as quick as a flash, he should be called at once. A great need exists for a good fielder for New York.

The Star A. C. of Long Island City have organized a baseball team, and are ready to play a series of games with the New York League team. Captain C. H. B. C.

MOB GROWS AT PANAMA

Rapid Firing Heard in the City Early This Morning. (By Associated Press.) PANAMA, Ill., June 11.—The mob here is growing larger. Pope, on whose farm the Springfield miners are in camp, says they will stay six months, if necessary, to close the Panama Mines.

More troops arrived to-day. Special deputies guarded the coal tipple last night. An attempt was made by a miner to enter the lines at Shaft No. 2, but on being hailed the man ran and, it is believed, was struck by some of the shots fired at him.

At 2 A. M. there was rapid firing here near the centre of the city. The militia soon got in motion, but found nothing. Word received here says that bands of men are passing Sandoval headed for Panama.

(By Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, June 11.—A call for troops has just come from Stark and Tuscarawas Counties. The Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling Railroad Company asked the Sheriff of Stark County for protection and he has sent a long message to the Governor.

Here Goes Another Bridge. (By Associated Press.) MIDVALE, O., June 11.—The covered railroad bridge over Tuscarawas River, south of Midvale, is burning. The bridge is over 100 feet long.

TRYING FOR A SETTLEMENT. Coal Conference at Columbus Takes Only a Recess. (By Associated Press.) COLUMBUS, June 11.—The miners and operators' conference took a recess until 3 P. M. to allow another consultation by the Scales Committee.

It is said the conference will not adjourn until a settlement is reached. You read "The Evening World?" Do you read the Sunday World?

MR. CLEVELAND INDISPOSED. His Monday Reception to the Public Abandoned. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Cleveland has been somewhat affected by the debilitating warm weather, and was indisposed to-day.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Cleveland has been somewhat affected by the debilitating warm weather, and was indisposed to-day. He has been bed-ridden for months, suffering from a complication of diseases, and his health is now such that he is unable to receive his usual health to-morrow.

CAPT. WARTS IS WORSE. Delirious All Yesterday, and There Are No Hopes of Recovery. Police Capt. Alexander B. Warts is in a critical condition.

He has been bed-ridden for months, suffering from a complication of diseases, and his health is now such that he is unable to receive his usual health to-morrow. He was delirious all day yesterday, and there are no hopes for his recovery.

BRITANNIA WINS. On Time Allowance She Defeats Satanita at Harwich. (By Associated Press.) HARWICH, England, June 11.—The Royal Harwich Yacht Club Regatta took place to-day. The course was around the Ship, Wash and Sunk Lightships. The weather was squally. The Satanita and the Britannia competed. The former yacht returned three-quarters of a length ahead of the latter, which won the race for 2-1-2 raters.

WON BY LUNA. Fine Wind for the Castle Club Regatta. (By Associated Press.) SOUTHAMPTON, June 11.—The Castle Yacht Regatta, for 20 raters, was sailed to-day from Calshot over a twenty-five mile course. The first half of the course was a dead run, and a westerly wind, around the East Brambles Buoy, and the second half was a beat home. The Asphodel, Inyoni, Dragon, Deirdre, Thelma and Luna sailed. Luna won, Inyoni was second, Deirdre was third and Asphodel was fourth.

TO COMPETE ON JULY 16. Date Decided on for the Oxford-Yale Regatta. (By Associated Press.) LONDON, June 11.—The Oxford-Yale athletic contest has been fixed upon for July 16.

Pettite-Kane Wedding. Margaret Sarah Kane, daughter of Captain J. Kane, United States Navy, will be married this evening at the Washington Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, in James Kane's private home. The bride's father will perform the ceremony.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Withers Stakes, for three-year-olds, promises to furnish a grand contest at Morris Park to-morrow. There is not a three-year-old of note that is not engaged. There is a doubt, however, concerning the appearance of the two-year-olds the public is most anxious to see. They are Dominic and Senator Grady.

It reports are true both of these colts are in superb condition, but, as neither of them is at Morris Park, they may be considered doubtful starters. The stake will be worth nearly $500 to the winner, but this is not enough to tempt the owners of these great colts to race them. Dominic's legs are not of the best, and Mr. Keene may be reserving him for the rich Realization at Sheepshead Bay, as did M. F. Dwyer with the great Potomac. Matt Byrnes probably has his eyes on the same stake.

Another good race of the week will be the New York Jockey Club Handicap, an event for all-aged horses, at a mile and a quarter, Pickpocket, Don Alonso, Banquet, Haneswell, Comanche, Dr. Jekyll, Herald, Clifford, Redskin and Lampblack are likely to start. Dr. Jekyll, Don Alonso and Clifford start, a crowd equal to that of the opening day should be present.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. The loss of $200 on a forged ticket was the means of John Cavanagh getting an order for $5000. The regular Monday race at Morris Park was a success. The crowd was large and the race was well contested. The winner was a colt named "The Evening World."

Mike Dwyer can well complain of hard luck in the Toboggan Slide Handicap. Stonenell should have won that race, but he was out of the race when he was hit by a horse named "The Evening World." He did get up with the leaders he began to lag in the stretch and he was pulled out by the jockey. Even then Stonenell was only beaten a head for the place.

The Morris are trying hard to arrange a match of some kind before the Morris are tried. They are trying to get a match of some kind before the Morris are tried. They are trying to get a match of some kind before the Morris are tried.

A despatch from St. Louis says: "The developments on Saturday's 'ringer' case are complicating matters. Judge J. B. McQuinn has received a telegraphic request from C. R. Jaynes, of St. Louis, to return to St. Louis. Jaynes will arrive here to-day. Another telegram from a Washington racing man says that Jaynes is expected to-morrow. Jaynes is expected to-morrow. Jaynes is expected to-morrow.

Alfred Hennen Morris said to-day there was a slight misunderstanding regarding the matter of the Morris. He said that the Morris was not working earnestly to bring Dr. Rice, Sir Walter, Clifford and Ramapo together on Saturday, but he was working earnestly to bring Dr. Rice, Sir Walter, Clifford and Ramapo together on Saturday.
